

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
should not be able to force their stations to air
Stolen Honor days
before the election.
If this is not
against the law, it should be. They should, at minimum
be required to air
the equivalent on
the other side,
Going Upriver, to
at least pretend to be fair and/or
objective.

Broadcasters use the public airwaves free
of charge, and are obligated by law to serve the public interest.
Consolidation of media interests is
hurting our free press and because of that our democracy.

Sinclair's actions
show why we need to strengthen media
ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license
renewal process
needs to involve
more than a returned
postcard.

Thank you.
